

SissyFight 3000

Solo

Target player discards one chip.

Action

SissyFight 3000

Defend

Play "No Target" as your target.
The total number of chips you must discard this turn is halved (round down).
However, if no other player targeted you, you must discard one chip.

Action

SissyFight 3000

No Target

Play this card with the "Defend" action only.
If you play this card with any other action, or if you play "Defend" with any other target, discard one chip.

Target

SissyFight 3000

Team

If at least one other player used a Team action against your target, he discards two chips for each player that used a team action against him.
If you are the only player that played a Team action against your target, then there is no effect.
